Hi (b)(6),

Confirming receipt. I will make sure Danny sees this immediately.

Also, I have some edits to the Rosfinmonitoring "minutes" from the Busan meeting which I will send to you later this afternoon (apologies for the delay, Danny was on travel last week and wanted to review).

Hi (b)(6)

I wanted to follow up to see what question you have. I am on leave but will be back in the office tomorrow.

Will you be in then? Thanks.

Hi (b)(6)

Hope everything went well today and that you've started the trip out strong with at least one pastries per meal! Don't forget that there's an amazing bakery down the street from the hotel at Place Victor Hugo (I think it's called Patisserie Marquise?) with some of the best croissants of my life – definitely worth the

Hi (b)(6)

Hope everything went well today and that you've started the trip out strong with at least one pastries per meal! Don't forget that there's an amazing bakery down the street from the hotel at Place Victor Hugo (I think it's called Patisserie Marquise?) with some of the best croissants of my life – definitely worth the three minute walk for a better breakfast.

Ok, I've attached the following documents:

I'm going to email Ivan now and cc' you, if that still works for you. Let me know if there is anything else I can do.

Good luck!

You're going to have to just catch her in the mist to walk and talk. Her calendar is jammed tight. You might can catch her just before her 2pm meeting around 1:45pm. She's out of the building now.

U.S. makes sanctions exceptions for some transactions with Russian intelligence agency

Reuters

The U.S. Treasury Department said it will allow companies to do some transactions with Russia's Security Service (FSB), despite cyber-sanctions put in place by former President Barack Obama.

U.S. intelligence agencies accused the FSB of involvement in hacking of Democratic organizations during the 2016 presidential election.

U.S. TREASURY DEPARTMENT
OFFICE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

TREASURY SANCTIONS SENRIOE ISIL FINANCIER AND TWO MONEY SERVICES BUSINESSES

Action Underscores U.S. Collaboration with the Government of Iraq on Countering ISIL and Marks the First U.S. Designations of ISIL-Linked Money Services Businesses

12/13/2016

WASHINGTON – The U.S. Department of the Treasury took action today to disrupt ISIL’s financial facilitation network by designating Iraq-based Selselat al Thahab Money Exchange, ISIL financier Fawaz Muhammad Jubayr al-Rawi, and his company, the Hanifa Currency Exchange in Albu Kamal, Syria, pursuant to Executive Order (E.O.) 13224, which targets terrorists and those providing support to terrorists or acts of terrorism. Al-Rawi and the two money services businesses have played an important role in ISIL’s financial operations by helping the terrorist group move its money. As a result of today’s action, all property and interests in property of Selselat al Thahab, al-Rawi, and the Hanifa Exchange’s branch in Albu Kamal subject to U.S. jurisdiction are blocked, and U.S. persons are generally prohibited from engaging in transactions with them.

The Treasury Department worked closely with the Government of Iraq to identify these ISIL-linked money services businesses and execute today’s action. In a related action, the Government of Iraq has taken steps under its domestic authorities to bar al-Rawi and the two money services businesses from accessing the Iraqi financial system and freeze any assets they may have subject to Iraq’s jurisdiction. Furthermore, Iraqi authorities, with the support of the Treasury Department, have taken action to disrupt ISIL’s financial operations in Iraq, and are implementing a robust anti-money laundering and counter terrorist financing regime that has enhanced Iraq’s ability to protect its financial system from exploitation by terrorist groups such as ISIL.

“Today, in close collaboration with the Government of Iraq, we are targeting exchange houses in Syria and Iraq that ISIL has used to support its operations and terrorist activity,” said Adam J. Szubin, Acting Under Secretary for Terrorism and Financial Intelligence. “These are the first U.S. actions specifically targeting ISIL-affiliated money services businesses, and we will continue to work aggressively to deny ISIL access to the international financial system.”

TAB 4: TREASURY PRESS RELEASE OF DECEMBER 2016 ISIS DESIGNATION

Selselat al Thahab Money Exchange

Selselat al Thahab, which is based in Iraq, was designated for providing financial, material, or technological support for, and financial or other services to or in support of, ISIL, a Specially Designated Global Terrorist designated pursuant to E.O. 13224.

As of April 2016, Selselat al Thahab was facilitating the movement of funds on behalf of ISIL. From early 2015 to early 2016, it received financial transfers amounting to millions of U.S. dollars from various Kirkuk-based financial institutions. In many cases, these transfers were received into accounts belonging to an ISIL financier's company. Between April 2015 and March 2016, it conducted over 100 financial transfers into ISIL territory.

As of 2007, Selselat al Thahab also used a network of subsidiaries with different names to transfer money on behalf of terrorist groups in Syria to make it appear as if the money was being transferred within the company's network.

Fawaz Muhammad Jubayr al-Rawi

Al-Rawi was designated for providing financial, material, or technological support for, and financial or other services to or in support of, ISIL.

As of May 2016, al-Rawi was an ISIL finance emir and senior ISIL financier who owned and operated Hanifa Exchange's Albu Kamal branch near his residence in Albu Kamal, Syria. This money exchange business was used exclusively for ISIL-related transactions. Additionally, as of spring 2016, al-Rawi stored large amounts of cash for ISIL and controlled the value of U.S. dollars in Albu Kamal.

As of mid-August 2015, al-Rawi facilitated ISIL financial operations and oversaw money exchanges, money storage, and facilitation of payments to ISIL fighters. During that same time, he hosted ISIL leaders, including top level ISIL commanders and fighters, at his farm in Albu Kamal for weekly meetings.

In 2014 al-Rawi pledged loyalty to ISIL and joined the group, which considered al-Rawi important due to his contacts outside of Syria.

Hanifa Currency Exchange in Albu Kamal, Syria

The Hanifa Currency Exchange branch in Albu Kamal, Syria was designated for being owned or controlled by al-Rawi.

As of May 2016, al-Rawi owned and operated Hanifa Exchange in Albu Kamal, Syria. Around 2010, al-Rawi opened this money services business, which he used to exchange currency between exchange houses in Albu Kamal and Turkey. When ISIL took control of Albu Kamal in 2014, the terrorist group conducted weapons and ammunition deals with the help of al-Rawi and the branch of Hanifa Currency Exchange in Albu Kamal.

I am happy to host at 1801 L given the better VTC connectivity we would have with folks in our Vienna office, who I would ask to participate. Preferably we could do it during a lunch hour and you could grab something delicious at our fine take away eateries in the neighborhood. (When was the last time either of you were at 1801 L? I think (b)(6) has come over within the past year, but I can't remember hosting Jennifer.)

I think we could do it Friday, June 9, which would still be more than a week in advance of the meeting.

I am happy to host at 1801 L given the better VTC connectivity we would have with folks in our Vienna office, who I would ask to participate. Preferably we could do it during a lunch hour and you could grab something delicious at our fine take away eateries in the neighborhood. (When was the last time either of you were at 1801 L? I think (b)(6) has come over within the past year, but I can't remember hosting Jennifer.)

I think we could do it Friday, June 9, which would still be more than a week in advance of the meeting.

I will ask (b)(6) to reach out to your offices to see if that time, or another time can work.

Thanks,

Jamal

Scheduling the Next Bilateral Meeting with Rosfinmonitoring on the Margins of FATF

I hope you are well. It's been quite some time since we last spoke, in large part due to my inability to join the last bilateral meeting between Jennifer Fowler and (b)(6) on the margins of FATF in February. (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(A) (b)(7)(E)

I wanted to reach out to see if we could schedule another meeting between Jennifer Fowler and (b)(6) (b)(6) on the margins of the upcoming FATF meeting taking place in Paris the week of June 18th. Jennifer is available on Monday June 19th after ICRG concludes or on Wednesday, June 21st after Plenary concludes. Would (b)(6) be available during either of those two times?

(b)(7)(A)

I look forward to working with you again.

The White House

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

December 29, 2016

FACT SHEET: Actions in Response to Russian Malicious Cyber Activity and Harassment

Today, President Obama authorized a number of actions in response to the Russian government's aggressive harassment of U.S. officials and cyber operations aimed at the U.S. election in 2016. Russia's cyber activities were intended to influence the election, erode faith in U.S. democratic institutions, sow doubt about the integrity of our electoral process, and undermine confidence in the institutions of the U.S. government. These actions are unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

Sanctioning Malicious Russian Cyber Activity

In response to the threat to U.S. national security posed by Russian interference in our elections, the President has approved an amendment to Executive Order 13964. As originally issued in April 2015, this Executive Order created a new, targeted authority for the U.S. government to respond more effectively to the most significant of cyber threats, particularly in situations where malicious cyber actors operate beyond the reach of existing authorities. The original Executive Order focused on cyber-enabled malicious activities that:

- Harm or significantly compromise the provision of services by entities in a critical infrastructure sector;
- Significantly disrupt the availability of a computer or network of computers (for example, through a distributed denial-of-service attack); or
- Cause a significant misappropriation of funds or economic resources, trade secrets, personal identifiers, or financial information for commercial or competitive advantage or private financial gain (for example, by stealing large quantities of credit card information, trade secrets, or sensitive information).

The increasing use of cyber-enabled means to undermine democratic processes at home and abroad, as exemplified by Russia's recent activities, has made clear that a tool explicitly targeting attempts to interfere with elections is also warranted. As such, the President has approved amending Executive Order 13964 to authorize sanctions on those who:

- Tamper with, alter, or cause a misappropriation of information with the purpose or effect of interfering with or undermining election processes or institutions.

Using this new authority, the President has sanctioned nine entities and individuals: two Russian intelligence services (the GRU and the FSB); four individual officers of the GRU; and three companies that provided material support to the GRU's cyber operations.

- The Main Intelligence Directorate (a.k.a. Glavnoe Razvedyvatel'noe Upravlenie) (a.k.a. GRU) is involved in external collection using human intelligence officers and a variety of technical tools, and is designated for tampering, altering, or causing a misappropriation of information with the purpose or effect of interfering with the 2016 U.S. election processes.
- The Federal Security Service (a.k.a. Federalnaya Sluzhba Bezopasnosti) (a.k.a. FSB) assisted the GRU in conducting the activities described above.
- The three other entities include the Special Technology Center (a.k.a. STLC, Ltd. Special Technology Center St. Petersburg) assisted the GRU in conducting signals intelligence operations; Zorsecurity (a.k.a. Esage Lab) provided the GRU with technical research and development; and the Autonomous Noncommercial Organization "Professional Association of Designers of Data Processing Systems" (a.k.a. ANO PO KSI) provided specialized training to the GRU.
- Sanctioned individuals include Igor Valentinovich Korobov, the current Chief of the GRU; Sergey Aleksandrovich Gizunov, Deputy Chief of the GRU; Igor Olegovich Kostyukov, a First Deputy Chief of the GRU; and Vladimir Stepanovich Alexseyev, also a First Deputy Chief of the GRU.

In addition, the Department of the Treasury is designating two Russian individuals, Evgeniy Bogachev and Aleksey Belan, under a pre-existing portion of the Executive Order for using cyber-enabled means to cause misappropriation of funds and personal identifying information.

- Evgeniy Mikhailovich Bogachev is designated today for having engaged in significant malicious cyber-enabled misappropriation of financial information for private financial gain. Bogachev and his cybercriminal associates are responsible for the theft of over $100 million from U.S. financial institutions, Fortune 500 firms, universities, and government agencies.

- Aleksey Alekseyevich Belan engaged in the significant malicious cyber-enabled misappropriation of personal identifiers for private financial gain. Belan compromised the computer networks of at least three major United States-based e-commerce companies.

Responding to Russian Harassment of U.S. Personnel

Over the past two years, harassment of our diplomatic personnel in Russia by security personnel and police has increased significantly and gone far beyond international diplomatic norms of behavior. Other Western Embassies have reported similar concerns. In response to this harassment, the President has authorized the following actions:

- Today the State Department declared 35 Russian government officials from the Russian Embassy in Washington and the Russian Consulate in San Francisco “persona non grata.” They were acting in a manner inconsistent with their diplomatic status. Those individuals and their families were given 72 hours to leave the United States.
- In addition to this action, the Department of State has provided notice that as of noon on Friday, December 30, Russian access will be denied to two Russian government-owned compounds, one in Maryland and one in New York.

With respect to the June Rosfin meeting, there are definitely separate threads, and I spoke briefly to Jen and (b)(6) about it this morning.

Would it be helpful to just combine the threads? I'm happy to do that so that everyone is on the same page.

With respect to the June Rosfin meeting, there are definitely separate threads, and I spoke briefly to Jen and b(6) about it this morning.

Would it be helpful to just combine the threads? I'm happy to do that so that everyone is on the same page.

Feel free to give me a call if you want to chat more.

Based on your substantial experience and outstanding professional reputation within TFI, I am interested in meeting with each of you, next week if possible, to gain your perspectives and ideas for maturing TFI, as in institution, into the most efficient and effective organization possible.

Would welcome meeting individually or in small groups in my office (Main Treasury 4014-A), your office(s), or a neutral location – whichever you prefer.

Let me know your availability and preferred venue and we can go from there.

Hi All,

Adam has asked me to begin holding weekly strategic TFI-level management meetings to synchronize priority efforts and track progress toward our objectives. The group will be called the TFI Executive Steering Group (ESG) and is envisioned to include the following senior executives:

OIA – Deputy Asst Secretaries
TFFC – Directors for OGA and OSP
FinCEN – Associate Directors
OFAC – Associate Directors
TEOAF – Director

(b)(5) DP

Before scheduling a specific day/time, I would like to first solicit, by Friday, your preferences for days/times of the week that will work best for a recurring weekly 1-hour meeting and, more importantly, any times that won't work.

(b)(5) DP

(b)(5) DP

I look forward to receiving your feedback and working with all of you through this venue to identify key collaborative opportunities, track progress, and drive results.

Sincerely,

Hi (b)(6) –

By way of introduction, I am (b)(6), Associate Director of Intelligence Division, Senior Advisor on Tradecraft and Process. In my many conversations with (b)(6) she referenced you several times, so by way of virtual communication I would like to say hello and thank you for all the support you continue to provide FinCEN and Ms (b)(6) (as I refer to her). She speaks very highly of you. In my conversations with her, several concerns about the approach, authorities, and legality arose. I am aware of the meeting tomorrow; however, I will not be in attendance – but (b)(6) will be there for us.

I HOLD MYSELF ACCOUNTABLE TO:

RESPECT: Treat everyone with the same respect I expect to receive.

COMMUNICATE: Foster open communication and value others' ideas and opinions.

BALANCE: Ensure an ongoing dialogue about managing my workload, priorities, expectations, and constraints.

VALUE: Seek a deeper understanding of how my work furthers FinCEN's mission.

COLLABORATE: Work with others to provide high quality products and services to FinCEN partners.

ENGAGE: Share my expertise, proactively develop my skillset, and find fulfillment in my work.

All:

We will have a Town Hall meeting on Wednesday, November 16 at 2 pm. It's been a while since I have had a chance to engage with you directly in this format. We are seeking your input on topics that you would like to hear from me on, whether at this meeting or future meetings.

We have also arranged for Acting Under Secretary Adam Szubin to join us to discuss and take questions on the initiatives that he shared with FinCEN in July, including the idea of detailing FinCEN staff to OIA. Adam and I will be in Vienna for the Town Hall and we will have a VTC connection to the DC office.

Please provide feedback on topics to (b)(6), (b)(6) and (b)(6), with the understanding that, since we will want to give Adam a sufficient amount of time, I may use some of your feedback to make a list of topics to address at future meetings.

I look forward to seeing you Wednesday.

Hi Jennifer -

Thanks a lot for the condolences. Very kind of you.
I've added some more information to your draft minutes. I hope you would not mind. Please correct my English. No doubt you'll find mistakes.

Yes, I agree that we should start without delay our preparations for the bilat in June.

Take care,

Hi b(6) I am sorry for the delay in responding to you, and I am sending to both of your accounts to make sure this arrives. Please accept my condolences regarding the attack today in Russia as well.

I am sending you the minutes from our meeting in February – I hope you agree these accurately reflect the conversation.

Time flies and, when you are ready, we should discuss the preparation of a meeting in June, if that is acceptable to you.

Hi b(6) I am traveling and have been anxious to get to your email because I knew you must be frustrated. I am sorry I didn't get back to you quickly.

Regarding the JEM, I appreciate your raising this issue to my attention, and we are pleased to have b(6) participating in the project. Unfortunately, though, we have budget constraints that will allow us to send only one representative to the JEM meeting. I also appreciated b(6) invitation for me to attend, but my travel schedule has made this impossible.

Regarding the minutes of our meeting, I have a copy to send to you but what do you mean b(7)E I can send it to you via email.

Finally, I am working to confirm we can go forward with our dialogue but I don't expect any problems.

Best, and forgive my tardiness!,

Jennifer -

Hope you b(6) are doing well.

It was great seeing you in Paris. I think we had fruitful discussions, first of all between b(6) and you, and I hope that conditions will allow us to go forward the way preliminarily agreed upon.

Well, as you indicated before saying 'Good bye' to me at the OECD the minutes of our meeting had been almost ready. Would you mind sending the draft b(7)E to my attention?

There's one more thing I'd like to discuss with you.

As you might be aware, in Paris Russia proposed to conduct a research on professional ML networks. The proposal presented at the HoFIUs Forum and the RTMG meeting was welcomed by key delegations including yours. We are grateful for this to you and b(6) who volunteered to be a co-leader of the future project.

The problem is that this topic is included in the agenda of the upcoming JEM in Moscow as a stand-alone item for the panel discussion and also for a break-out session which will be run in parallel with other important workshops, on BO in particular. More than 15 delegates have already registered for the break-out session on professional ML networks. Unfortunately since you're planning to send just one representative to the JEM it'll be impossible for b(6) to co-chair this meeting and to attend other workshops. It would be a shame to give up and cancel the already planned session due to the above reason. Could you please consider again a possibility to delegate at least one more expert to the JEM? Actually we understand that probably it's a bit premature to turbo-start the project this way but since it's in the agenda it's better have the break-out session at this stage than not. We should find a compromise solution.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best wishes,

b(6)

Hi Jennifer,

Thanks for responding. I understand how busy you're, so no hard feelings. Since you're unable to send more experts to JEM we'll try to find a compromise solution somehow redrafting the programme of the sessions. My people we'll be in touch with b(6) and I hope they'll find the best way to proceed. It's a pity you won't be able to come to Moscow yourself.

If you're ready to share with me your draft minutes please e-mail them to b(6)

Hi Jennifer,

Thanks for responding. I understand how busy you're, so no hard feelings. Since you're unable to send more experts to JEM we'll try to find a compromise solution somehow redrafting the programme of the sessions. My people we'll be in touch with b(6) and I hope they'll find the best way to proceed. It's a pity you won't be able to come to Moscow yourself.

If you're ready to share with me your draft minutes please e-mail them to

Regarding the JEM, I appreciate your raising this issue to my attention, and we are pleased to have b(6) participating in the project. Unfortunately, though, we have budget constraints that will allow us to send only one representative to the JEM meeting. I also appreciated

Yuri's invitation for me to attend, but my travel schedule has made this impossible.

Regarding the minutes of our meeting, I have a copy to send to you but what do you mean b(7)E ? I can send it to you via email.

Finally, I am working to confirm we can go forward with our dialogue but I don't expect any problems.

Best, and forgive my tardiness!,

Jennifer -

Hope you b(6) are doing well.

It was great seeing you in Paris. I think we had fruitful discussions, first of all between b(6) and you, and I hope that conditions will allow us to go forward the way preliminarily agreed upon.

Well, as you indicated before saying 'Good bye' to me at the OECD the minutes of our meeting had been almost ready. Would you mind sending the draft b(7)E to my attention?

There's one more thing I'd like to discuss with you.

As you might be aware, in Paris Russia proposed to conduct a research on professional ML networks. The proposal presented at the HoFIUs Forum and the RTMG meeting was welcomed by key delegations including yours. We are grateful for this to you and Paulie who volunteered to be a co-leader of the future project.

The problem is that this topic is included in the agenda of the upcoming JEM in Moscow as a stand-alone item for the panel discussion and also for a break-out session which will be run in parallel with other important workshops, on BO in particular. More than 15 delegates have already registered for the break-out session on professional ML networks. Unfortunately since you're planning to send just one representative to the JEM it'll be impossible for b(6) to co-chair this meeting and to attend other workshops. It would be a shame to give up and cancel the already planned session due to the above reason. Could you please consider again a possibility to delegate at least one more expert to the JEM? Actually we understand that probably it's a bit premature to turbo-start the project this way but since it's in the agenda it's better have the break-out session at this stage than not. We should find a compromise solution.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best wishes,

b(6)

Hi b(6) I am sorry for the delay in responding to you, and I am sending to both of your accounts to make sure this arrives. Please accept my condolences regarding the attack today in Russia as well.

I am sending you the minutes from our meeting in February – I hope you agree these accurately reflect the conversation.

Time flies and, when you are ready, we should discuss the preparation of a meeting in June, if that is acceptable to you.

Hi Jennifer -

Thanks a lot for the condolences. Very kind of you.
I've added some more information to your draft minutes. I hope you would not mind. Please correct my English. No doubt you'll find mistakes.

Yes, I agree that we should start without delay our preparations for the bilat in June.

Take care,

Dear b(6)

Thousands apologies for such a late response – I have just returned from vacation and was offline.

Upon coming back to office I found out that b(6) would not be able to participate in the forthcoming FATF Plenary and he had decided not to delegate his powers to anyone to have a bilat with Jennifer b(7)A this time aiming at the October Plenary in Argentina. So, unfortunately we have to cancel the meeting.

Please accept our apologies for the inconvenience caused.

Best wishes,

b(6)

b(6)

I hope you are well. It's been quite some time since we last spoke, in large part due to my inability to join the last bilateral meeting between Jennifer Fowler and b(6) on the margins of FATF in February. I understand that since the last meeting in Paris in February, Jennifer and b(6) have

b(7)A

I wanted to reach out to see if we could schedule another meeting between Jennifer Fowler and b(6) on the margins of the upcoming FATF meeting taking place in Paris the week of June 18th. Jennifer is available on Monday June 19th after ICRG concludes or on Wednesday, June 21st after Plenary concludes. Would b(6) be available during either of those two times?

b(7)A

b(6)

I look forward to working with you again.

Best,

Component Principals on IMT Participation

April 07, 2017 2:30:00 PM (-04)

El-Hindi, Jamal;

Change: Starting half an hour later but still planning to end at 3:00, so now scheduled 2:30 - 3:00.

Rescheduled March 22.
 (b)(6) *****
Jennifer, (b)(6), Jamal, and (b)(6) - John Smith is interested in the current state of play for component participation in each of the three IMTs and as (b)(6) to meet with the four of you to get a sense from each of you the status and perspectives regarding your component's participation in the IMTs (including collocation spaces and meetings).

We will have a Town Hall meeting on Wednesday, November 16 at 2 pm. It's been a while since I have had a chance to engage with you directly in this format. We are seeking your input on topics that you would like to hear from me on, whether at this meeting or future meetings.

We have also arranged for Acting Under Secretary Adam Szubin to join us to discuss and take questions on the initiatives that he shared with FinCEN in July, including the idea of detailing FinCEN staff to OIA. Adam and I will be in Vienna for the Town Hall and we will have a VTC connection to the DC office.

Please provide feedback on topics to (b)(6), (b)(6) and (b)(6), with the understanding that, since we will want to give Adam a sufficient amount of time, I may use some of your feedback to make a list of topics to address at future meetings.

I look forward to seeing you Wednesday.
